

Intelligent

In-ceiling screen

Triangular low bar retracts into the case

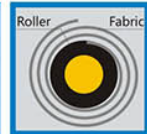

Handsome white powder coated case provide a solid structure and clean look.

Specially designed brackets allow easy installation for all ceilings.

Quiet motor

Unique roller design ensure the flattest screen surface

Solid structure

Handsome white powder coated case provide a solid structure and clean look.

Installation is easy

Specially designed brackets allow easy installation for all ceilings. Designed to have the screen installed during the "rough-in" stages of construction or the finish stage.

Motor in roller design

Special Motor in roller design keep quiet and smooth operation.

Unique roller design ensure the flattest screen surface

Large diameter rollers ensure long-term screen integrity providing a consistent flat projection surface.

Equipped with standard 3 button in-line switch

All of Seemax control systems are available for this model screen, for detailed information please refer to page 12-13 Control options

Screen selection

Matte White, High Contrast Grey, Bepformer 1.8, High Gain

Equipped with quiet motor